

Pluralism – Navigating Change in Counselling & Psychotherapy

International Conference on Pluralistic Counselling and Psychotherapy 2020
 Sunday 19th July 9.30am – 6.15pm Plus Online Pub from 6.30pm till late!

Hosted by Onlinevents

9.30am - 10.15am	Orientation to the Day - Kate Smith & John Wilson Introduction to Pluralism - Mick Cooper & John McLeod
10.15am - 11.15am	Keynote - Andrew Reeves Looking Outwards and Building Collaborations
11.30am - 12.30pm	Reflecting on Gender Identity in Relation to Pluralism - Mason Webb
12.30pm - 1.15pm	Lunch
1.15pm - 2.15pm	Choice of Presentation
	Option 1 An Experiential Workshop - Exploring Creativity as a Client Preference in Pluralistic Practice Mike Kay & Anna Fox	Option 2 Research Presentations Marie-Claire Murphie & Rich Knight Hosted by Kate Smith	Option 3 Working with Trauma in an Online Environment - A Case Study Kathryn Stevens
2.30pm - 3.30pm	Overcoming Racism - In Conversation with Susan Cousins
3.45pm - 4.45pm	Pluralistic Therapy and Climate Change: Implications for Practice - John McLeod
5pm - 6pm	Panel Discussion: Navigating Change in Counselling & Psychotherapy - Adeola Russell, Ani de la Prida, Lynne Gabriel, Mick Cooper, Rima Sidhpara & Susan Cousins
6pm - 6.15pm	Closing Summary and Comments
6.30pm Onward	"Pub Chat"		